

Section 719.20 – RM, Multiple Family Residential District

The Multiple Family Residential District is designed to permit more intensive residential use of land, featuring various multiple-family attached dwellings and related uses. Various types and sizes of residential units are available for ownership or rental, catering to the Township's diverse age and family groups.