

Section 719.24 – MH, Manufactured Home Community District

The Manufactured Home Community District is a moderate-density residential district designated to provide safe and adequate housing for ownership or rental to meet the needs of different age and family groups.